

THE WORK FINDER

New and Quick Way to Reach the Employer.
No matter what position you seek, somebody will look for your services—if not today, then tomorrow, or the next day. The demand for help is greater than the supply, and in order to bring employer and worker together conveniently and inexpensively, The Times offers its columns as a meeting place. Here the employer will look for help with the certainty of finding it, and the worker will get employment through this simple method. Write below your advertisement of 20 words or less, enclose in an envelope and mail, or better yet, bring it to this office and get a box number. This advertisement will be printed in The Times for 6 days following receipt at office. You agree to notify The Times promptly when position is obtained to stop advertisement and pay 25 cents for the service. If the advertisement should fail to bring satisfactory results it will be REPEATED UPON REQUEST for 6 days more. This is the surest and cheapest way of finding work.

TRADE NOTES.—A meeting of the Southern Farmers' Marketing Ass'n will be held Aug. 18 and 19 at Birmingham, Ala. A. D. McLean, chief of the B. A. L., will be among the speakers.

The question of "wars" at the stock carols is being settled as far as solid coin, for the purpose of saving money. The $8 & S. people have agreed to split up their units, with one place, restaurant, occupying most of the first floor of the office building, employees are allowed a liberal reduction in purchasing luncheon tickets. The Morris people are adding a store to their office building in order to make room for an addition hall there.

The attending chemist at the soap factory, with his family has started another trip to western Canada, his family on their vacation.

A public hearing will be held Aug. 20 at Washington for the purpose of hearing a presentation of proposed radical changes in regulations regarding the manufacture and sale of hog carcasses, and other analogous products intended for use on domestic animals. The department of agriculture proposes new rules that will make safety greater than that of previous grades of the market.
